

South Australia's Council on the Ageing will host 'Ageing Well in Your Community' events in Victor Harbor and Goolwa over the next two months. The upcoming event on Thursday 29 October will focus on physical and mental health, LGBTI matters, transport and transitioning from driving, hazard management and local community programs. Victor Harbor's event will be 10am at the Gospel Centre's Auditorium, 2 George Main Road in Victor Harbor, and the Goolwa event will be at 2pm at the Uniting Church's Open Door Centre, 1 Collingwood Street in Goolwa. To register or for more information, email events@cotasa.org.au or call 1800 182 324

The Goolwa Rotary Open Garden and Art Show will be held at 1 Thornbury Street Goolwa, opposite Woolies on Saturday October 31 from 10am till 5pm and Sunday November 1 from 10 am till 3pm. Wine and Cheese tastings and food will be available. with a BBQ lunch. Entry only $5, under 15 free.

The City of Victor Harbor Youth Advisory Committee (YAC) are happy to announce the Halloween Boo-Night Disco will be held in the Victor Harbor Recreation Centre, 5 George Main Road, Victor Harbor on Saturday, 31 October 8.30pm – 10.30pm.

The disco is a LOCK IN event for young people aged 11 to 18 years. DJ Roxy will be cranking the tunes and there will be heaps of fun giveaways throughout the night.

Entry is $5 and tickets are to be sold at the door. For more information Call Lucretia Sperring on 85510586 or email Lsperring@victor.sa.gov.au

The Annual Regional Youth Art Exhibition is a fantastic collaboration between Alexandrina Council and the City of Victor Harbor, showcasing the talents of young artists from across the region. The exhibition will be displayed at Signal Point Gallery, Goolwa Wharf Precinct, from Mon 2nd-Sun 29th November. To find out more about the exhibition go to Alexandrina Council Facebook page and search for Youth Art.

Interested in sailing but not currently a sailor? Or formerly a sailor? Ever thought about volunteering at a yacht club? And interested in some regular good company on a Sunday afternoon? If that sounds like you, why not drop us a line on the Goolwa Aquatic Club Sailing facebook page or come in on a Sunday after racing at 92

Barrage Road, Goolwa for a chat. We're a small and friendly club. There are plenty of volunteer roles associated with our sailing activities, both on-water and shore-based.

We'd be happy to hear from you!

The Community Craft Shop at the Railway Station Goolwa is open Monday to Friday 11am to 3pm, and weekends from 9.45am to 4.15pm with a range of interesting and varied local hand-crafted items for sale. Including Embroidery and Knit Wear, Cards for All Occasions and Jewellery, Preserves and Jams, and Steam Ranger badged Items. New Members are also encouraged. Visit or call 8555 5600

If you like playing with trains and if you have some spare time, consider becoming a new volunteer at the historical Port Elliot Railway Station, assisting travellers purchase Cackle Train tickets or souvenirs. The work is not terribly taxing and you'll meet interesting people from all walks of life, including from interstate and overseas. If interested, further details can be obtained by phoning Southern Volunteering on (08) 83260020 or visiting the Go Volunteer website.

The Alexandrina Community Nursery is currently open every Friday from 9am to 4pm. on Kessel Road, Goolwa (Next to the Alexandrina Council works depot) and stocks more than 160 local native plant species suitable for coastal gardens. Prices start from $1 and nothing is over $2.50 and comes coupled with advice from Manager Ben to help plan your next project.

The Anglican Community of Goolwa invites you to an informal gathering and meal, and we would love you to join us at the Holy Evangelist Church Hall, Crocker Street, Goolwa. Starting at 5:30pm every Sunday, the weekly gathering will include music, a brief talk, and discussion over a catered meal. Due to Covid Restrictions we will be limited to 36 people. Please call 0407 615 683 to ensure your place.

For all information re the virus please visit www.australia.gov.au/ or call 1800 020 080 both of which are available 24 hours a day, seven days a week.

If you are a community group and would like your message read out on air, please email it to: alexfm@radiogoolwa-alexfm.com.au